Walter League to Have Picnic... The Walter League of the St. Matthews Lutheran church will have an outing and picnic at Forest lake near Lake Zurich Sunday afternoon, July 22...

Allen Bennett and Orville Wentz of Barrington returned Wednesday from an outing of three days at Waukegan, Wis.

William Gloske and Melvin Anderson of the Teachers' college at Lake Park were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Gloske, 312 Grove avenue, from Friday until Tuesday.

Manco Capac, First Inca Chief of Quichua Tribe... The world's greatest problems—how to keep food fresh, palatable, and nutritious while being transported from one side of the globe to the other—is well worth the hardship.

Birds: Easy Courtship... An elaborate display of plumage is used by some birds to courtship. The peacock is a well known example of this. The male turkey is seen "strutting" in the barnyard...

Peculiarities of Sheep... Domesticated sheep do not revert to wildness if offered the chance. They will always return to a pens in which they were born. A young ewe, thrilled with new motherhood, sometimes will start her baby to death—will not allow him to suck her milk—in her ecstasy over it.
