

Published in municipality with a local delivery rate in Illinois—1936 Census.

VOLUME 18 NUMBER 22
BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 10, 1933
$2.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE, SINGLE COPIES, FIVE CENTS

BARRINGTON REVIEW

Village Council Regional

Stores Will Operate on 63-Hour Schedule

Most Merchants Agree on Plan to Start August 21

The village board has adopted a plan for a 63-hour week for the stores in Barrington, effective August 21. The plan provides for a 10-hour day from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m., and a 12-hour day from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. on Saturdays. The plan also provides for a 12-hour day from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. on Sundays. The plan was adopted by a vote of 10 to 2.

See Wonders at Fair Buried in Own Elbow

Striking A Century of Progress Fair, which is being held in the park of the village, has been a source of wonder to many of the residents. One of the wonders is that a man who was buried in his own elbow during the fair, was found to be alive and well.

Depositors Vote to Go Ahead on Liquidating Plan

Committee Begins Drive to Get Signatures of at Least 90 Per Cent

The liquidating committee for the First State Bank of Barrington has received approval from the depositors to go ahead with the liquidating plan. The committee has begun a drive to get signatures of at least 90 per cent of the depositors.

344 Vehicle Tags Issued by Village Clerk; a Few Delinquents Are Sought

New vehicle tags continue to be pasted on the windshields of Barrington cars, according to Chief of Police E. W. Burt. Some of the delinquents are being sought by the village board for the payment of vehicle taxes.

Gigantic Parade Through Village Streets Planned

Community to Hear Legion, Auxiliary and Scout Drum and Bugle Corps

Barrington has put on its best attire and is in readiness to welcome the Legionnaires and Auxiliary members who will pour into the village for the ninth district convention Saturday-morning. The parade is one of the biggest events in Barrington in long time.

Mrs. Robert Marsh and Children Are Injured in Accident in Wisconsin

The injured persons were given first aid at Richmond and were then brought to their home in Barrington. Mrs. Marsh, her son Donald and daughter Clara, all were injured in an automobile accident on highway U. S. 12 just north of the Wisconsin line.

Ninth District Legion, Auxiliary to Convene

Highlights of Legion and Auxiliary Programs for Saturday Outlined

The highlights of the American Legion and Auxiliary program for Saturday follows:

10 a. m. Junior baseball game, boys' team and swimming at North street.

Assistant Managers at Summer Convention Held at Jewel Tea Company

The last summer school convention and course for Jewel employees came to a close Wednesday evening when 87 assistant managers left for their homes after having been given the home office for three days. They were accompanied by the branch manager from the Barrington branch.

Cost of Changing Sewer System Is Set at $325,000

Meeting of Board, Committee and Complainants Set for Next Tuesday Night

A group of 17 men, including six village trustees and residents of the board, five members of the advisory committee, and five of the complainants in the sewer case will meet on Tuesday night at the Barrington Hills Country club.

Sledge-dogs Bring Fair-Bound Village Through Village

The sledge-dogs were brought from the north country by the village trustees and are being used to pull the sledge for the fair. The dogs are being trained by the village trustees.

Mrs. Susan Church, 80, Dies Following Lingering Illness

Mrs. Susan E. Church, 80, widow of the late A. Dolos Church, died at her home at 148 Cook street, Barrington, on Wednesday afternoon after an illness of about eight months.

Stock Plan Outlined

The plan outlined provides for the setting up of a stock corporation with a capital of approximately $100,000. The plan also provides for the liquidation of the First State Bank of Barrington.

Explosion Causes Death

The Danahen and Wilmering automobile was called to Washington, Ill., on Monday morning. Mrs. Rose Markelak, 36, of Chicago, who was camping near Danahen, was severely injured when a gasoline stove on which she was preparing breakfast exploded. She was taken to the hospital at Libertyville, Ill. She died in the afternoon.

Scout Protesges to Have Part in Event Saturday

Jamboree, Swimming, Baseball, Parade, Dancing on Entertainment Program

"Welcome Buddy" and "Welcome Legionnaire" will be the prevailing slogans here Saturday when the Barrington American Legion, the Auxiliary and the community at large will be hosts to the Ninth District American Legion and Auxiliary, and the Scout Protesges.

Assistant Managers at Summer Convention Held at Jewel Tea Company

The last summer school convention and course for Jewel employees came to a close Wednesday evening when 87 assistant managers left for their homes after having been given the home office for three days. They were accompanied by the branch manager from the Barrington branch.

Cost of Changing Sewer System Is Set at $325,000

Meeting of Board, Committee and Complainants Set for Next Tuesday Night

A group of 17 men, including six village trustees and residents of the board, five members of the advisory committee, and five of the complainants in the sewer case will meet on Tuesday night at the Barrington Hills Country club.

Sledge-dogs Bring Fair-Bound Village Through Village

The sledge-dogs were brought from the north country by the village trustees and are being used to pull the sledge for the fair. The dogs are being trained by the village trustees.

Mrs. Susan Church, 80, Dies Following Lingering Illness

Mrs. Susan E. Church, 80, widow of the late A. Dolos Church, died at her home at 148 Cook street, Barrington, on Wednesday afternoon after an illness of about eight months.

Stock Plan Outlined

The plan outlined provides for the setting up of a stock corporation with a capital of approximately $100,000. The plan also provides for the liquidation of the First State Bank of Barrington.

Explosion Causes Death

The Danahen and Wilmering automobile was called to Washington, Ill., on Monday morning. Mrs. Rose Markelak, 36, of Chicago, who was camping near Danahen, was severely injured when a gasoline stove on which she was preparing breakfast exploded. She was taken to the hospital at Libertyville, Ill. She died in the afternoon.

Scout Protesges to Have Part in Event Saturday

Jamboree, Swimming, Baseball, Parade, Dancing on Entertainment Program

"Welcome Buddy" and "Welcome Legionnaire" will be the prevailing slogans here Saturday when the Barrington American Legion, the Auxiliary and the community at large will be hosts to the Ninth District American Legion and Auxiliary, and the Scout Protesges.

Assistant Managers at Summer Convention Held at Jewel Tea Company

The last summer school convention and course for Jewel employees came to a close Wednesday evening when 87 assistant managers left for their homes after having been given the home office for three days. They were accompanied by the branch manager from the Barrington branch.

Cost of Changing Sewer System Is Set at $325,000

Meeting of Board, Committee and Complainants Set for Next Tuesday Night

A group of 17 men, including six village trustees and residents of the board, five members of the advisory committee, and five of the complainants in the sewer case will meet on Tuesday night at the Barrington Hills Country club.

Sledge-dogs Bring Fair-Bound Village Through Village

The sledge-dogs were brought from the north country by the village trustees and are being used to pull the sledge for the fair. The dogs are being trained by the village trustees.

Mrs. Susan Church, 80, Dies Following Lingering Illness

Mrs. Susan E. Church, 80, widow of the late A. Dolos Church, died at her home at 148 Cook street, Barrington, on Wednesday afternoon after an illness of about eight months.

Stock Plan Outlined

The plan outlined provides for the setting up of a stock corporation with a capital of approximately $100,000. The plan also provides for the liquidation of the First State Bank of Barrington.

Explosion Causes Death

The Danahen and Wilmering automobile was called to Washington, Ill., on Monday morning. Mrs. Rose Markelak, 36, of Chicago, who was camping near Danahen, was severely injured when a gasoline stove on which she was preparing breakfast exploded. She was taken to the hospital at Libertyville, Ill. She died in the afternoon.

19 Candidates to Try for Red Cross Life Saving Awards

Nineteen Barrington young people will attempt to pass the American Red Cross life saving test for June 1933 at the Barrington Country Club pool Friday and Saturday of this week. The test is a practical one and has taught the class which will be given the test. All entrants have been practicing the test daily for the past two weeks.

BLUE ES ALWAYS

Home-Home
NRA

lbs. 45c
Can 6c
lbs. 47c
pkg 20c

ables
dozen 23c
2 for 5c
3 lbs. 19c

ABLES IN TOWN
ecials
lb. 19c
lb. 12c
rester lb. 19c
lb. 13c
lb. 35c

lb. of Special at 30c
and Ham 35c
fresh fish

. 10 Inclusive
A-Bou-Solid Pack
will surprise.
SYRUPS, Royal Blue,
parts of water for
pink pig 15c
H. com 55c
61c

DER, Calumet,
24c
at Chimook, tender,
that can 23c
T. whole segments,
No. 2 cans 25c
ETABLES, A-B-E
2 cans 19c
DAP, sheathful and
reg. bars 17c
reg. pags. 21c

Chain Store
VE SELL
erick