In Hostess to Della Alphas
 Mrs. V. D. Howler, 523 S. Cook street, was hostess to the Della Alpha class of Salem church at a Christmas party Tuesday evening. The following program was presented: Christmas carol singing led by Mrs. Eugene Grebe, devotionals, Mrs. Irvine Hager; vocal solo, Mrs. L. A. Thacher; reading, Miss Ethel Schwab; piano duet, Mrs. John Blanke and Mrs. Orville Meisner; and a play, "The Pink Scarf" with the following characters: Mrs. S. H. Kampert, Mrs. W. A. Stauffer, Mrs. Selma Herrlin, Mrs. Hubert Bergstrom, Mrs. Elmer Meyer, Miss Mitchell, Mrs. Earl Jackson, and Mrs. A. Wisning. A social hour followed the program.

Gleaners and Brotherhood Hold Annual Party
 The Gleaners and Brotherhood of the St. Paul church will meet tonight in the church parlors for their annual Christmas party. Plans have been laid for at least 50 members and a program including Christmas carols, a Christmas story and games will be enjoyed. A pretty lighted tree with a gift for each one present will be an enjoyable part of the evening. Each one present will supply something for Christmas baskets.

Entertainers Keystone Class Tuesday
 Mrs. Earl Scheffer of South Hough street was hostess to members of the Keystone class of Salem church at a pot-luck supper and Christmas party Tuesday evening. Games, carol singing and an exchange of gifts completed the entertainment.

Barrington Woman's Club

Miss Madge Sparks displayed books for children at the public library Thursday afternoon, giving women an opportunity to obtain information on buying proper books for Christmas gifts.
 Following the book display, the literature committee of the club presented Mrs. Agnes Cherry who reviewed three short plays, "Dods-worth," "Achilles Has a Heel," and "The Children of the House." The principal play given was "The Old Maid" Mrs. Cherry, with her charming personality, making each character seem real. She also gave a short talk on everyday courtesies and personal appearance.

The regular Christmas party at the Catlow theatre opened with a short business meeting Wednesday afternoon.
 Mrs. E. S. Smith, chairman of the Red Cross drive, reported that a check for $177.02 had been sent to headquarters. Mrs. Fred Beeson, in the absence of the Ways and Means chairman Mrs. C. Watkins, reported a net of $105.50 from the party given in the Jewel auditorium.
 Mrs. R. Keeling, chairman of the literature committee, announced that William Reichmann will talk on "An American Looks at World Affairs" at the public library January 9.
 Chester Catlow played several pleasing numbers on the organ.
 Miss Carlyn Barr gave the "Second Shepherd's Play." She also talked on early plays, the early stage and its scant properties, early guild and miracle plays.
 Raymond Gieske sang two solos, appropriate for the Christmas season. The afternoon was concluded with two short movies.
 A large number of gifts were brought for the "Little Wanderer's Nursery."

Christmas Greetings
 Once more we approach that season of good will when men pause in their daily labor to renew the bonds of friendship which join them to their fellows.
 We take pleasure in extending to all our friends and neighbors our best wishes for a very Merry Christmas. May the genial spirit of the season brighten every hearthstone.
DANIELSEN & WILLMERING

In Hostess to Mothers' Study Club
 Mrs. Peter Pedersen entertained members of the Mothers' Study club at her home, 219 Grove avenue, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Earl Haggis gave a talk on the social side of a child's school life and led an interesting discussion of factors which must be considered in deciding upon a suitable prep school or college to meet each child's individual needs. Mrs. Robert Granger was welcomed as a new member of the club.

Will Entertain Alumni Society
 The Alumni society of the Baptist church will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Sears Friday evening. A program of Christmas music and games has been planned by the entertainment committee. A box of gifts will be sent to the Hudsonon Orphanage at Irvington by the society.
