Depositors Flock to Clearing House to Assign Credit

More Than $600 Released to Use After First Two Half Days

The Barrington Merchants Clearing House association is in operation with deposit assignments coming in daily and merchants and depositors both enthusiastic about the plan for releasing 10 per cent of the deposits of the First State bank.

From 10 o'clock Thursday until two half days after the opening of the association, 25 depositors had assigned 10 per cent of their claims against the bank. The total amount assigned was $650.

Many depositors who had not yet assigned their money to the clearing house were expected to do so during the next few days.

Mr. Schroeder presented the total amount which would be available to the clearing house. The secretary of the clearing house reported that the amount assigned was $650.

One group has been credited with too many votes in Cuba, Libertyville, Zion 5, Antioch, 2, Shields 2, Waukegan 3 and Lake Villa.

Two that non-qualified voters.

That the credit assignment will give a success is evident from the enthusiastic response which has given it during the first two days since it started operation.

Although the officers of the association and the depositors both anxious to explain operation of the assignment plan, a few depositors and merchants have reported that one of two points are not clear in them.

A question frequently asked is what does the service cost a depositor. The answer is it costs the depositor nothing. It is a service to the depositor. If a depositor is a stockholder he can assign 10 per cent of his claim to the clearing house without any cost to himself.

Hendee-Alford Contest for County Clerk Will Be Before Court Jan. 17

A hearing of the petition for recount of votes in the Russ Alford-Low Hendee contest for election to the office of county clerk of Lake county will be held before Judge J. L. Persons Thursday, Jan. 17. At that time it will be decided whether there will be an official recount of votes.

The petition for recount of votes in the contest brought by the democratic candidate Bart Tyrrell, probably will be answered by Sheriff Lawrence Doolittle on January 17. Four of the 11 counts in the petition for recount were held insufficient by Judge Persons Monday. It is probable that the democratic candidate will try to gain a recount of the strength of some or all of the remaining 13 counts.

Those found insufficient included: 1. That Doolittle is a creditor with too many votes in Cuba, Libertyville, Zion 5, Antioch, 2, Shields 2, Waukegan 3 and Lake Villa.

2. That non-qualified voters.

3. That an unqualified judge and clerk served.

Nelson Publicity Leads to Finding Long Lost Father

Name of Witness of Gun Battle Directs Woman to Father Here

The discovery of a 70-year-old father, lost for 37 years, in at least one compensating development of the gun battle along the Northwest highway November 27 when outlaw Leader Gilles (George) Babey Face Nelson and federal agents Herman E. Hollis and Samuel Cowley were fatally wounded.

In the small city of Salida in south central Colorado Mrs. Ida Ma. Hayford Barnes was reading an account in her local newspaper of the machine gun and pistol battle when she recognized among the list of Barrington witnesses two names that appeared familiar, Ed and Robert Hayford. Two half brothers whom she had never located but whose names she knew, were the only clue to the discovery of her father, James Hayford.

Mrs. Barnes immediately communicated with chief of police E. E. W. Baade who informed her that her father, James Hayford, was living on East Main street in Barrington. The happy reunion came last week after Mrs. Hayford and her father, James Hayford, met at the home of her father.

"Too Many Readers" Reason for Stopping Annual Subscription

When a newspaper reader discontinues his subscription, he is implying, usually, that he does not care to read the paper any longer. It is not interesting, or the paper is not interesting, or the paper is not interesting, or the paper is not interesting.

The Review lost a subscriber last week—but strangely enough the basic of complaint was overpopularity and not underpopularity.

Confidence Game Man Sentenced to 6 Months in Jail

Program for Grading New Route 59 Awaits Biltmore Agreement

The program for widening highway 59 is ready to be put underway, except for the fact that one property owner, the Biltmore country club, has not agreed to the terms for sale of right of way property as offered by the highway department.

This information was reported to Hiden Gleke, village president, at a conference held in the district highway office at Eight Thursday. The highway department and the Biltmore country club representatives will confer before the end of the week.

Mr. Gleke asked the district engineer for part of Main street to be widened and financed by the state gas tax proceeds. He was informed that any road work on Main street will be under the supervision of the Chicago office of the Chicago office supervision while Park avenue, Hough street and other streets are under Elgin.

"First by Merit" in Barrington and Near-by Communities.

Building activity in Barrington during 1934 was about eight times greater than during the preceding twelve months. Construction work, including both new buildings and improvements of old structures, amounted to $44,020 as shown by permits issued by Building Commissioner E. E. Ernst.

The largest portion of the building activity was centered in the business district, $42,830 having been spent for the construction or alteration of business buildings or churches. In 1933 the total spent for these purposes was $2300.

The total amount of permits issued for 1933 amounted to only $7375, the lowest figure for the last seven years.

Dundee Man Must Answer Charge of Reckless Driving

Is Blamed for Auto Crash on Highway 63-A January 1

A warrant for the arrest of M. E. Coleman of Dundee, on a charge of reckless driving, preferred by Harry Wiedenbeck of Barrington, was issued in police court of A. D. Church Thursday.

Coleman was driving a car along highway 63-A which crashed into the Wiedenbeck car early New Year's day. The man behind the Dundee car, and the other was in the Barrington machine.

Coleman reported at the time that he carried liability insurance and gave the name of the company carrying the policy. An adjuster was expected to interview the Barrington persons including the owner of the car. It was reported, prior to noon Thursday that the wreck, he had not interviewed any of them.

Both cars were badly damaged in the crash which occurred when the Dundee machine skidded or bolted into the Barrington car just before they made contact, according to report of one of the occupants.

Miss Parke received several severe lacerations on her face and neck. Her husband, M. E. Coleman, has a broken arm and a broken leg. Wiedenbeck's back was torn, and Miss Wiedenbeck and Mr. Wichman were bruised. Mr. Schuring suffered from a fractured clavicle and a deep cut on his leg.

The Barrington young folks have nearly recovered from their injuries, although Mr. Wiedenbeck is still confined to his home.

Births Increase, Deaths Decrease, Shown by Records

A slight increase in birth rate and an equal decrease in death rate at Barrington are recorded for 1934 for the paper on which takes its place in the annuals of the past. There were 64 births and 36 deaths in the village during 1934 as compared with 52 births and 39 deaths in 1933, one third of the deaths being caused by heart and circulation complications. Five deaths were caused by pneumonia, six resulted from automobile accidents, and there were a few stillbirths. The rest are of a variety of causes.
