

'Babes in Toyland'
Saturday Feature
at Catlow Theatre

Familiar Melodies of 'The Merry Widow' Will Be Heard Next Week

Little Anne Shirley, as the orphan in 'Anne of Green Gables' is winning the plaudits of movie fans at the Catlow theatre this week. The production must be ranked up as one of the noteworthy pleasures of the picture season. It makes its run Friday night to make way for the new Laurel and Hardy feature-length musical comedy, 'Babes in Toyland'. This Victor feature, originally shot for the two ace comedians of the screen. The songs, 'The Pop-Go', 'Castle in Spain' and 'March of the Toys' are every bit as popular today as they were in the heyday of the 'Hollywoodland'.

Charlotte Henry as 'Bo-Peep', Fells Kniehl as Tom-Tom and Virginia Kniehl as Mother Goose, with a chorus of sixty voices, combine to make this offering an event to look forward to. Comedy, Pathos and cartoon, together with the best of the best in the picture business patterns are added features of the bill scheduled for Saturday night.

Girls' school and laughs play a caper in Paramount's campus comedy 'College Rhythm', coming to the Catlow Sunday and Monday with Joe Penner starring. In addition to the picture, the stars, Lanny Ross, Helen Mack, Leda Roberts and Marjorie in a speedy story about campus romps who turn department store business into a college football campaign. 'College Rhythm' is an up-to-the-minute fun, with tunes to whistle, gags to chuckle over and film chorines to dazzle the eyes.

The bargain night offering next Tuesday is 'The Ace of Innocence' with Irene Dunn, John Holm, Linnell Armit and Laura Hope Crews playing important roles. The story, from the Pulitzer prize novel by Edith Wharton, deals with that part in America when rules of conduct and the proprieties were so powerful that to conform or to ostracize were the only two paths recognized by society. Dora finds herself madly in love with a woman his world will not permit him to have, and tied down by an engaged to a girl he doesn't want. The plot deals with his exciting and dramatic efforts to extricate himself.

'The Merry Widow' begins its three-day run Wednesday. Replete in its strikingly beautiful costumes and settings, filled to the brim with sly ingratiating humor and a home the never-to-be-forgotten melodies of Franz Lehár, it is bound to delight every one. The stars, Maurice Chevalier and Jeanette MacDonald have never enjoyed a greater triumph. With Una Merkel, Minna Gombell, George Barbier and the Albertina Rasch ball of support, the cast is an imposing one, and through their efforts the picture floats along like a bubble of merriment to tell its story of the de-bonair prince and the bewitching widow whom he waltzes away to romance amid the delights of Vienna and Paris.

Linoleum Destroyer, Germ

The inventor of Holobrom rightly thought that he had discovered an ideal floor covering. It certainly never occurred to him that he had made a germ-killer, yet it is now well known that the solidified linoleum seed oil with which linoleum is manufactured destroys millions of typhoid and other germs.
