

Bronchos Whip Arlington 21 to 14 for Eighth Victory of Season

Grabenkort Sinks Three Shots After Latta Fouls Out

Midgets Have Less Trouble Downing Arlington, 15 to 10

Barrington high school's sharp-shooting basketball team won their eighth consecutive game Friday night by defeating Arlington Heights 21 to 14 but showed only a trace of the knock 'em down style that has been characteristic of the Bronchos.

Although the contest standing of one notch behind the undefeated Bronchos. With four more conference games to be played, one of which is with their annoying Barrington opponent, the Pirates appear to have by no means given up hope of title recognition.

Leyden and Libertyville are tied for third place, having lost two games apiece. Barrington tied Arlington out of a three-way tie for third place by winning 21 to 14 Friday night.

Leyden high school's quintet won a pair of overwhelming victories from Warren high school at Gurnee Friday night. The Leyden heavyweights won 32 to 18, and the lightweight 33 to 9.

Libertyville drubbed Ela in both games of doubleheader Friday on the winner's court. The heaviest won 35 to 13, and lights 21 to 8.

The Wildcats took a commanding lead at the outset of both games and were much too strong for the invaders.

By George, that's too bad!" he said. "I hope that some of his men, who would be breaking into camp by now, would shoot or sting so their voices would break down the trees and the enemy distances surrounding them which evidently possess the girl. "Too bad! It's getting dark here enough but it isn't raining. I'll come down all down, and get your second wind, now."
