

Eddie Cantor Is Starred in Film Opening Sunday

Crosby-Carlisle Team Appear in "Here Is My Heart," Three Day Run

"The Little Minister," starring the brilliant Katherine Hepburn, will be seen for the last time at the Callow theatre Friday night.

"The Pursuit of Happiness," Broadway's sensational "bandstand comedy of the past season, starring Frankie Lederer, will appear on the screen Saturday.

The picture reveals what the picture books have been withholding and what it was like to get through the long, cold and bitter winter evenings for our not always stern, harsh and forbearing Puritan forefathers.

Comedy, news, and even drama for woman patrons comprise the bill.

Eddie Cantor in "Kid Millions," the wide-eyed comedian's new screen extravaganza for Samuel Goldwyn, begins a two day run with Art Scherer, Ethel Merman, Block and Sully and this season's group of Goldenwyn girls.

"Fisher Brown, Detective," starring Walter Connolly, will be the bargain night feature Tuesday.

"The Love Me Not," will open a three day run Wednesday in their second vehicle, "Here Is My Heart."

"The Little Minister," news and comedy are added attractions.

Miss Crosby and Kitty Carlisle, whom Paramount teamed together in "She Loves Me Not," will open a three day run Wednesday in their second vehicle, "Here Is My Heart."

Light and carefree, this is easily the best of Crosby's numerous pictures. Given a chance to do light comedy, the stinging star proves himself a highly capable artist at this type of role, and with the aid of Miss Carlisle turns a clever story into serious minutes of excellent entertainment.

Outstanding in three comic roles are Roland Young, Alison Skipworth, and Reginald Owen, relatives of Miss Carlisle, who play a Russian princess. Their respective performances add immeasurably to the success of the picture.

Robin Banner and Leo Robin, authors of "Love in Bloom," wrote the music for this picture, including two songs certain to be hits, "Love in January" and "With Every Breath I Take." A third catchy song by Robin and Leo tender is "Love Is Just Around the Corner."

Special comedy, "Little Big Top," scenic and acrobatic complete the program, a local Girls' Athletic association benefit.
