

Wallace Beery in "Mighty Barnum" Is Coming Sunday

"Forsaking All Others" Opens at Catlow Wednesday for Three-Day Showing

P. T. Barnum, self-styled "Prince of Humbug," comes back to a hearty "Hi" Sunday for a three-day residence at the Catlow theatre, in the person of Wallace Beery, who plays the archness showman in "The Mighty Barnum."

The picture follows the three-day showing of "The Lines of the Royal Lance" opening tonight. The spectacular picture with its heart-taking action is presented as a benefit by the Royal Arch Masons, Palatine, and the famous old-timer, General Tom Thumb, the "100 year old" general who was the infant of the world's greatest showman exhibit in the Valley City a century ago, to the life again in "The Mighty Barnum."
