

Shirley Temple Is Booked for Return Showing Friday

"After Office Hours," "The County Chairman," Open at Catlow Next Week

Shirley Temple will return to the Catlow theatre Friday night for a request repeat showing of "Bright Eyes," following the completion of the "Cha Cha Chow" engagement Thursday night.

The seventh screen appearance of Warner Oland as the intrepid Charlie Chan takes place Friday when the latest production, "Charlie Chan in Paris," will make its debut to local audiences.

Comedy news and Owen dinner was to women patrons complete the Saturday bill.

Comedian Bennett and Clark Gable, two of the most popular stars on the screen, are teamed for the first time in "After Office Hours," coming to the local screen Sunday and Monday.

Among Miss Bennett's recent screen roles are "The Affairs of the Heart" and "Chained" and "The Affairs of the Heart" and "Chained."

An exceptionally strong supporting cast features Stuart Erwin, Billie Burke, Harvey Stephens, Katharine Alexander, Henry Travers and others.

Musical comedy news and cartoon are added attractions to the feature.

A modern version of Daniel in the lion's den is enacted for the motion picture in "The Fighting Rangler," which, with added news, comedy and cartoon, is the bargain night offering Tuesday.

In the fall of the feature here is the intrepid Buck Jones, the star of many spectacular outdoor pictures.

Genuine humor improves with age, is the claim of Will Rogers, and he cites the case of his latest picture, "The County Chairman," which will open a three-day run Wednesday evening.

The homesy humor is rich in its American flavor. In fact if George Ade had had Will Rogers in mind when he wrote this play, he couldn't have created a more perfectly tailored story for the Oklahoma sage.

Others in the cast of this famous play are Evelyn Venable, Ken

Taylor, Louise Dresser, Bertou Churchill, Charles Middleton, Frank Melton and Joseph Peck. John Davidson directed. "Clive of India," "Good Fairy" and "Wines in the Dark" are a few of the pictures that will soon be shown at the Catlow.

David Copperfield Comes to Rialto

After more than a year of preparation of filming "David Copperfield" comes to the screen. It will open Sunday, March 24 at the Rialto theatre, Elgin, and will run for four days.

No photography in recent years has advanced more advance interest than "David Copperfield." Listed among the immortal stories of all time, it frequently was described by Charles Dickens, its author, as "my favorite child." It is a story that has been read by untold millions since it first was published, and its presentation on the screen is awaited eagerly.

No liberties have been taken with the original story, according to advance information. It remains a thrilling, dramatic and humorous tale of adventure and romance, just as Dickens wrote it.

Filmed both in England and America, "David Copperfield" boasts an all-star cast of unusual proportions. "Come to the screen," says the Rialto, "and featured players have the principal roles, with many other players in supporting parts. It was produced by David O. Selznick of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, the man who gave the screen "Dinner at Eight," "Dancing Lady," "Viva Villa!" and "Little Women." The producer was George Cukor, who directed "Little Women" and many other outstanding successes.

The cast of "David Copperfield" reads like a Blue Book of the screen. W. C. Fields plays Micawber, the imprudent but lovable seriocomic character. Fredric Lawton and little Freddie Bartholomew divide the title role. Lionel Barrymore, Madge Evans, Marjorie O'Rourke, Edna May Oliver, Louis Stone, Elizabeth Allan, Roland Young, Basil Rathbone, Elsa Lanchester, Jean Cadogan, Josephine Loveland, Frank Herbert Mundin—there are but a few of the stars and key featured players who portray "key" parts.

At an open meeting Friday, March 15 the annual garden program was presented by the ladies and conservation committee of the Lake Zurich Community Women's Club.

The chairman, Miss Margaret Fink, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Morgan of Winnetka, formerly an instructor of botany at the University of Illinois. He is now representing the Commonwealth Edison company.

Mr. Morgan gave a very practical and entertaining talk on "Landscaping the Home Grounds," illustrating his talk with beautifully colored slides, showing various garden plans and many lovely gardens of the Chicago area. He emphasized such elements as suitability, restraint and balance in these gardens and discussed trees and the use of them.

Mrs. Fred Clifton of Highland Park, chairman of the garden program of the 10th district, was a guest of the club. Guests from the Palatine Woman's club and from Lake Zurich and vicinity were also present.

Tea was served at attractive tables, suggestive of spring. Hostesses of the day were Mrs. C. E. Weaver, Mrs. A. Leonard, Mrs. H. L. Wagner and Mrs. L. L. Smith.

The March meeting of the Lake Zurich Community Women's Club was held at the home of Mrs. Margaret Fink, 135 Park Avenue, Tuesday evening, March 19.
