

Doolittle Winner Over Tyrrell With Margin of 72 Votes

With more than 25,000 ballots cast for sheriff April 11, Doolittle, elected, checked and recounted. Judge Perry L. Persons today entered an order which gives Sheriff Lawrence A. Doolittle, the republican, 18,961 votes to 8,889 for Hart Tyrrell, the democrat, of a lead of 72 votes.

The 18,961 votes for Sheriff Doolittle, as listed in the court order, shows that the sheriff dropped 112 votes from the count of 19,073 in the official canvass last fall. Tyrrell lost 47 votes in the recount from the total of 18,986 tallied by the canvassing board.

At the fall election in Cuba township Doolittle had 618 votes and Tyrrell had 280. The recount gave Doolittle 611, a loss of 77 votes and Tyrrell 283, a gain of three.

Runoffs on ballots in dispute will bear great weight in the contest for the county clerk's office where Lew A. Hendee is asking an appeal from the appellate court for a rehearing. Russ Alford was declared winner of the election last month by the appellate court in a ruling against Hendee.

Dominican Missionaries Open St. Jude Novena on Monday, April 22 to May 7

Two well known Dominican Missionaries and noted orators, Rev. V. P. Kienberger, O. P. of New York City, and Rev. P. A. Vander Heyden, O. P., S. T. L., of Minneapolis, Minn. will conduct the next solemn public novena in honor of St. Jude, "Helper in Difficult Cases," at the Shrine of St. Jude in St. Pius church in charge of the Dominican Fathers on 19th street and South Ashland avenue, Chicago.

During these nine days of prayer starting April 22nd, there will be public services daily, at 10 a. m., 3 p. m., 6:30 p. m. and 8 p. m. The solemn closing exercises on May 7th will be in charge of the Rev. H. B. Gungles, O. P. The relic of St. Jude will be offered for public veneration at all services.

St. Pius church can be reached by the Douglas Park "L" to 18th street, or by Ashland-Southport Surface cars to 19th street.

Chester Catlow Takes Place at Organ After 3 Months on Isle of St. Lucia

After three months on a tropical island, swimming, hiking, fishing and learning the joys of amateur photography, Chester Catlow returned to Barrington last week, a little weary from eight days of ocean buffeting but enthusiastic about the "simple life." "Natives on the island of St. Lucia, where I had a small cottage for the entire period of my vacation this year, live a serene life," said Mr. Catlow. "They need never fear hunger or cold, they live from day to day untroubled as to old age—hence there are no murders among the natives, which results from a faster, more hectic tempo in living."

Most of the work on St. Lucia island is manual labor, he said. In the large sugar factory "Cul de Sac," for instance, which employs 250 natives, little machinery is used. Natives strip for work each wearing only a sugar sack as he labors. The average wage is ten pence per day, twenty cents in American money.

Mr. Catlow brought back 150

First U. S. Copper Coins

About Size of Old Penny
The first copper coins made in America are cited to John Hilly, of Granby, Conn., in 1737, notes a writer in the Indianapolis News. They were about the size of the old cent, and had on them a deer and three hammers with the legend, "I am good copper, value me as you please." State coinage of copper cents began in New Hampshire, in 1775; Vermont and Connecticut, in 1785; New Jersey, 1789; New York, 1787; followed by others until April 2, 1792, when President Washington signed a law to establish a United States mint, which went into effect at once.

The specimens of the first six pounds of copper were first struck for coinage. On September 21, three coins were struck from the first die, and early in October, 1792, the first half-dimes and a few copper cent patterns were struck by the new mint.

In 1793 regular issues of copper cents began, with a number of designs, such as wreath, link, liberty cap, flowing hair, beaded edge, plain edge and others. These were followed by an issue every year since, with the exception of 1815, when none were coined. Coinage of large coins continued until 1857. In 1850, 1857 and 1858, coinage of the Indian head cent piece began. In 1860, the Indian head cent was replaced by the Lincoln head cent.

First Payment Due for Waived Deposits of Algonquin Bank

Edward J. Barrett, state auditor, announced that he has authorized payment of 10 per cent of the waived deposits, amounting to $5013.16 to the depositors of the Algonquin State Bank, Algonquin, Ill.

The bank was opened in 1933 following the moratorium and in order to facilitate opening of the bank 40 per cent of the deposits were waived.

This is the first repayment. Auditor Barrett stated, it will take place about April 15.

Proof of the Pudding

WITH FOOD, the Proof is in the Eating.
WITH NEWSPAPERS, the Proof is in the Reading.

WE of the BARRINGTON REVIEW staff, feel a little justifiable pride in some cold figures which reveal our "proof in the reading." So we are passing these figures on to you.

The Average Weekly News Stand Sale of the BARRINGTON REVIEW for the twelve weeks ending March 1, 1935, follows:

Place	Reviews Sold (average per week)
McLeister's	129
Fredlund's	31
Burandt's	11
Review Office	10
Total average No. sold per week	181

WEEKLY MARKET SPECIALS FROM THE LEADING FOOD STORES.
LARGE MAJORITY OF LOCAL DISPLAY ADVERTISING.

All for $2.50 per year

The News Stand sales for most weekly newspapers comprise a minor item — amounting to only a small fraction of the above total figure.

The Review's subscription receipts (news stands and yearly subscribers) for the 12 months ending March 1, 1935, exceeded the total receipts for the previous 12 months by $574.90.

The above true and accurate figures point to the fact that The Review is a well read and much desired newspaper in this community — which is sound proof of the pudding.
