Bride of Frankenstein Now Showing Creates 'Tops' in Thrills

Eleven stars headed by Alice Payne, James Dunn, Ned Sparks and 200 breath-taking chorus beauties appear in the George White 1935 'Scandals' which commences at the Catlow theatre Sunday and Monday.

The plot of the new issue of the Scandals could stand on its own feet without the aid of song, dance and comedy. It concerns a vacation-bound producer who stops off at a small Georgia town to send a telegram and see his own name at the local opera marquee.
