THE REVOLUTION IS OVER

The decision of the supreme court throwing out the NIRA and re-defining constitutional limitations has taken rank as probably the most notable opinion delivered since the Civil war. But one of the points generally overlooked is the dramatic qualities of the decision.

For two years the new deal has gone forward with new statutes. Outstanding legal authorities who warned that they were unconstitutional were brushed aside as "Torians." Court tests were avoided by administration attorneys. For two glittering years everything went smoothly for the machine but then came the present session of congress with its new deluge of laws. Once more attempts were made to get the new statutes through before the supreme court could act, but a democratic majority itself began to think towards the constitution.

The stage was set as though by design for the court's action. A terrific drive was in progress to get an extension of NIRA. Proponents of the Wagner labor disputes bill to substitute Washington authority for local authority in employment relations was being raced toward enactment. The same was true of the AAA amendments to give the secretary of agriculture unlimited authority over handlers of agricultural products. In fact, the week of May 27 was to be the week of the big legislative drive. Then, like a scholarly professor breaking up the pranks of a schoolboy classroom, the supreme court stepped in at that dramatic moment and said, "Read your constitution."

One was suggested that the next step for the administration is a school for new deal lawyers, with the constitution as required reading. Well, the revolution is over.

Have Class Night Program Monday

Class Presents School With Picture of Ernest Her, Former Principal

Class night program of Palatine township high school was held Monday night in Cutting hall before a large audience. Francis Reuse, vice president of the class, acted as master of ceremonies. The "Welcome" was given by Albeny Polonsky, president of the class.

A class history, will and prophecy were worked out in short one-act plays. "Senior Highlights" told of the ability of such member, their activities in school and their scholarships and achievements.

"Benediction and Exchange" of the class was presided over by Wayne Deane, Harry Helms, Godfrey Schinkow, Myron Blumey and Daniel Domek. "March of Time for 1935" gave the class a history of the year. Allenby Polonsky initiated an announcer. Vocal solos were given by Verma Rosen and Frank DeBerger accompanied by Vivian Stewart. Mrs. Stewart also gave a humorous reading with piano accompaniment.

Red and white ribbons tied in red and white trumpet handle were presented by Allenby Polonsky to Shelby North, president of the junior class for safe keeping through 1935-1936. "The class gift, a beautiful and lifelike picture of Ernest Her, the superintendent who answered the bell on December was presented. Mr. Reuse accepted the gift and thanking the class for thoughtfulness in keeping before the pupils and public Mr. Her's idealism was admitted by his likes had meant so much to the school even in the short time he had been there.

At 10:15 a. m. announced the Spotlight staff for the coming year as follows: Louise Weite, editor in chief; Irene Godknecht, business manager; Eleanor Steinbrink, reporter; Elizabeth Polonsky, assistant editor. Plans for merit work on the Spotlight staff were awarded to Geraldine Dand, Victor Krambler, Kenneth Stroker, Frank DeBerger, Albeny Polonsky.

"Keepsakes" or class mementos is a feature of the outstanding class. The class presented them. Frank DeBerger presented them. Edward Hahnfeldt then presented the trophy which was won at Park in last August, this being the first trophy won locally in track events. It must be won three years for final possession but the gold station is permanent. Mr. DeBerger also presented a trophy for school giving praise to the boys who had won the honors for their school.

The high school orchestra under the leadership of Mr. Kay furnished the music. Members of the graduating class, including: Vernon Bergman, Milton Miller, Lee Blankenship, Myron Blumey, John Brestyner, Geraldine Dand, Frank DeBerger, Daniel Domek, Wayne Deane, Raymond Engleke, George Fols, Frank Fols, Edward Hahnfeldt, Kathryn Hans, Cecilia Harv, Harvey Helms, Howard Krambler, Howard Kruse, Carl Lou-Harner, Pearl Lesberg, Leighton Meyers, Marie Maxwell, Dolores Mays, Alice Neitz, Marie Perry, Allenby Polonsky, Verma Rosen, Francis Reuse, Maurine Roberts, Godfrey Schinkow, Raymond Schmidt, Howard Schwolow, Vivian Stewart, Kenneth Stroker, Emma Grege Trepa, Dorothy Weiler, Ruth Wendland, Bernice Werner, Albeny Polonsky, Ernest Zyc, Dorothy Weiler was unable to be present because of having measles.

Barrington Country Day school will close its first year with a party in Mrs. Erbert Spencer's play room Friday night. The kindergarten will give nursery rhymes in song and the grades will act a play "The Gnomes' Workshop."

Palatine Junior Class Holds Prom Saturday Evening

The annual senior and junior prom was held Saturday evening at the Palatine township high school. The setting for the party was in Japanese style. The guests were greeted upon entering by Phyllis Her and Marjorie Trepa, dressed in Japanese costumes and were escorted to tables where fruit juice cocktails and canapés were served by Evelyn Wintchenberg, Ruth Weichert, Marie Danielson, Olive Neitz and Shirley Stewart.

The banquet was served in the room on the second floor which was beautifully decorated with cherry blossoms. The tables were adorned with crepe paper baskets filled with pink blossoms with the petals of a sum drop in the center. A small Japanese parasol and the nat cups were little Japanese lanterns.

Shelby North, junior class president, acted as toastmaster. Edwin Ketterling, Jr. gave the welcome in a bouquet from Japan in which Allenby Polonsky, president of the senior class responded. Miss Vera Jumps gave a reading entitled "Da School Scoop" in her gracious manner.

John Reuser, principal of the high school, gave a talk: Harrison Kincaid, president of the high school board, took place as a guest of honor from Japan.

The banquet was prepared by the mothers of the junior class and was enjoyed by all. The gymnasium was a typical Japanese garden with cherry blossoms, large fans, a Japanese persimmon for the orchestra and Japanese lanterns. As the assemblage of the Japanese girls gave the program during the Japanese dance writing. The grand march was led by Shelby North and Grace Hahnfeldt and Allenby Polonsky and Miss Florence Spira, after which all enjoyed an evening of dancing to the musical strains of an orchestra from Des Plaines.

There were sixty couples in attendance including a very old of town guests among those who were invited by Mrs. C. C. and Mrs. Carl Meigel of Arlington Heights and Mr. and Mrs. Orval Caut of Austin, Mrs. Caut and Mr. Meigel were former teachers of the high school.

Barrington Hills

The Decoration Day dance held Saturday night at Barrington Hills Country club was a greater success than ever. The guests gathered about eight and after a delicious dinner danced until the small hours.

The women's golf team which includes Mrs. Robert Buckley, Mrs. Leslie Hansen, Mrs. Byron Smith, Miss Billie White and Mrs. Kenneth Kalkreuth is leaving Sunday for Springfield to play in the state championship matches.

The June meeting of the Garden Club of Barrington was held at the Country club which was enjoyed. Owing to a misunderstanding the speaker, Edwin L. Howard did not arrive until after luncheon. Fortunately the Gloucester Garden club which was also holding a meeting at the club had arranged for a fashion show while the luncheon was being served. The members thoroughly enjoyed it and afterwards gathered to hear Mr. Howard. He talk was most amusing and instructive and illustrated with chalk sketches. The Garden club expects to tour the beautiful gardens at Lake Geneva for its next meeting. Barrington gardens will be exhibited to the public Saturday, June 15.

Another fashion that was enjoyed was that of Miss Ina Cortill which was sponsored by Miss Cortill and Mrs. Harry Dunbar and Mary Grubbs and held at the Country club Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rowe are leaving Monday to attend Mr. Rowe's class reunion at Princeton. After that they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Hickox at Wheatley Hills, Linn Island. Bears R Score 3 Runs in Final Frame for Season's 1st W

These Decision at Plate Now Starts Fight; Bensenville Here Sunday

Spiriting in the ninth inning, three runs around the bases, the Barrington Bears defeated the Bensenville team last Sunday afternoon at the local field.

Besides being the Bears' home game, it was the first game of the season. The game was postponed because of rain, and the Bears' initial win in four six games is each of the first, second and eighth innings, while at Bensenville had counted once in the 4th as a single by Wickham and a double by Rudy Berg, but the out-of-luckers in the 2 to 1.

Bear's Rally - Gussie Alonquin opened a last frame, but the Bensenville infield, plus-bittering Williams, hit another one-bagger to advance the runner to the Workman laid down a sacrifice bunt to score Gussie while Chasley went to second. Then Will came of the Alonquin clan and through with a hit to the home and Chasley dashed for the outside as he raised safe in a close play of the plate.

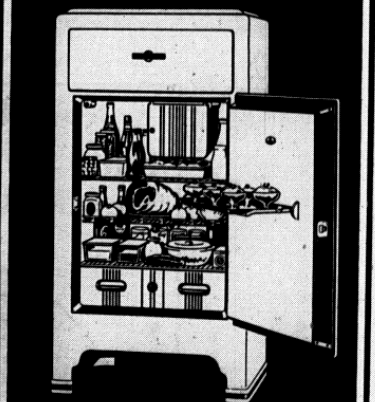

Apparently angered by the play, Harris, the Alonquin pitcher, turned on the umpire John Hunicke, and while a crowd of fans and players rushed on to help to settle the issue. Will went into the way home to end the winning run. The out-of-luck rasher ward game with the Bear in front 4-3.

Helmetman Hurts - At Helmetman, elongated right hander made his first start on the Bears and pitched the whole game, only giving eight hits and striking out nine. The Bears went to work in the 8th and 9th.
