Benefit Flower Sale to Be Held Saturday, June 8

A "Flower Sale" has been arranged for Saturday, June 8, in Barrington. This movement has been endorsed by a local group and is sponsored by The American Brotherhood of the Blind for the purpose of supplying reading material done in the Braille system to be used by unfortunate persons who are without the use of their eyes.

As in former years, school children will sell the blossoms. The local committee sponsoring the project includes: Rev. Edward Hermann E. Koenig, Reverend H. L. Eagle, Mrs. John Schwemm, Mrs. E. S. Smith, Mrs. Walter Sears, Mrs. V. D. Hawley, Mrs. Reuben O. Piange, Mrs. Leslie McClure, Mrs. A. F. Schauble and Mrs. Harold Grebe. Mrs. Grebe is to have charge of the sale of flowers. Children selling flowers have been asked to meet Mrs. Grebe in the council chambers of the village hall before 9 a. m. Saturday morning.

There are five prizes and movie passes donated by Barrington merchants and the Catlow manager to be given as "contest incentives" to the workers securing highest totals and movie passes will be given to those children who bring in at least $3.00. The prizes are: 1st prize, a $3.50 permanent wave done by the Beauty Box; 2nd prize, two one dollar bills donated by a friend of the blind; 3rd prize, ball-bearing roller skates donated by Schroeder Hardware; 4th prize $1 purse donated by S. Lipofsky and Sons; 5th prize, $1 box of candy donated by J. A. McLeister and movie passes donated by the Catlow manager.

A home-to-home canvass has been planned by Mrs. Grebe and children are to be stationed in the downtown streets.

Howard Castle Is Valedictorian of Graduating Class

Twenty-two Students Awarded Scholarship Prizes at Exercises

Scholarship prizes were awarded to 22 students by St. Erasmus Smith at the commencement exercises Wednesday night. Plans were made for the commencement which will open all pupils with high ratings annually. In order to be eligible for a pin it is necessary to have qualified for the honor roll five out of six periods in scholastic year.

Howard Castle, valedictorian of this year, received a diamond pin symbolic of having led his class, scholastic standing for four years. Bronze pins were awarded to the following as a reward for obtaining the rating a first time: Rita Hirschberg, Mary Louise Byers, Fred Holke, Vernon Jurgens, Leonard Nicolai, Adèle Ryser, Albert Castle, Betty Schraeder, Robert Mandenhack and Dorot Varsberg.

Those receiving second year gold-rodons awards are: Harriet Burandt, Robert Koenig, Lucie Jones and Glen Hager.

Scouting silver pins for the year awards were given to Frances Bennett and Alfred Castle.

Seniors qualifying for awards are: Jack Davidson, a bronze pin; Vernon Piange and Phyllis Lindgoldensberg, Dorothy Dettler and Ilay Osburn were given gold pins for having a high rating for four years.

The commencement program was as follows: P. L. Anderson presiding; professional, high school oratory presentation, H. H. E. Koenig; vocal solo, Edith Stroupe; commencement address "What Have You in Hand," by Edith Stroupe; Lynn Waldorf, selection; oratory; presentation of high class, Arnett C. Lines; presentation of awards, Ernan S. Smith presiding; Rev. W. A. Stauffer in his speech, Bishop Walden enumerated great moments in life and great moments in history and suggested that each person make a real mission in his life without an ungodly mission. He said, "Life would be dull, if it closed his address with the quotation of a professor to a young graduate: 'My prayer is that life may not lose its halo.'"

Class colors were green and white, class flower the rose and motto, "The times change and we change with them."
