By McLaughlin of his best friend. Saturday night brings Heather Angel and Lyle Talbot in "It Happened in New York."

It is a comedy drama, rapid and light, built around the attempt of a movie star to steal a little photographer's boy friend. Ring Lardner's classic of baseball and blonde, "Alibi Ike," is scheduled for the Sunday-Monday spot, with Joe E. Brown as the dizzy miracle man in the box. It will be a near call for the great game on account of laughter, as fans know, "What a pitcher! What a pitcher!" Charlie Chase in "Poker at 8," Mickey Mouse in "Service Station," shows band act and community singing will build the Sunday-Monday program to a new high in light entertainment. Bargain night offering next Tuesday will be a return showing of Gary Cooper's, "Lives of a Bengal Lancer," a production rated among the best of the entire year—just what that fully merits repeated playing. "Les Miserables," Victor Hugo's sepias classic, with the stars, Laughton, is scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday next week. Hugo's arraignment of injustice flames anew as Laughton in the role of Javert pronounces the words, "I sentence you to 16 years in the galley!" It will be remembered Jean Valjean had stolen a loaf of bread. After serving his monstrous sentence he was free—free to live a lifetime of terror—a hunted man, hunted for love, honor and a name. Viewers of "Les Miserables" will acclaim this production as eminently distinctive—a fitting successor to "The Count of Monte Cristo."
