Thirteen Errors Mark Bears Easy Victory Sunday

Seek to Avenge Early Defeat; Trounce Cary 11 to 3 in Last Start

Aboga the 500 mark for the first time this season with a record of eight games won and seven lost, and also possessors of a three-in-a-row winning streak, the Bears have not forgotten that 14-4 shelling they received in the season opener at Heights, May 5, and will be out to redeem themselves Sunday. The above mentioned contest, however, could hardly be called anything but a practice game as it was the first time the local squad had played together since the previous season.

Red Wings Strong
Whether the Bears can defeat the Red Wings remains to be seen as the Heights nine has been playing sweet ball this year and recently registered a 6 to 1 win over the highly-touted Trades Council team of Elgin. It is expected that the largest crowd of the season will be on hand when the game starts at 3 p. m. at Spunner's park.

The resistance expected from the Cary Bears failed to materialize last Sunday and the Bears came out with an easy 11 to 3 victory, their eighth of the season.

Founding E. Kvidera for 14 hits the local's sowed up the game with a six-run spree in the eighth inning. Rudy Berg starred at the plate with four hits in five time ups. It was more or less an "opening" game as the Bears committed seven errors and Cary six.
