

"Dante's Inferno" Coming to Catlow Screen This Week

"We're in the Money" With Blondell and Farrell Sunday-Monday

Will Rogers in "Steamboat Round the Bend" is now playing his first community run at the local theatre.

Thursday and Friday nights will complete the engagement. "Black Sheep," on the screen Saturday night, has for its theme the irrepressible habit of attempting to smuggle jewelry, Paris dresses, etc., past the eyes of the custom officials.

Edmund Lowe, Claire Trevor, and "Tom Brown head the cast in this story. A Buster Keaton comedy, cartoon and Pathé news are added subjects of interest.

The breach-of-promise racket lends itself in a provocative fashion to the famous "Kimmie" girls of the screen, Joan Blondell and Glenda Farrell.

With Hugh Herbert in support, they offer Sunday and Monday their newest venture in convulsing comedy. "No man is safe when these pleasant chisellers turn on the heat! They love 'em and leave 'em—flat broke!"

Laural and Hardy in "Thicker Than Water," news and cartoon are included in this bill. "That shooting, hard-driving, action character, "Hopalong Cassidy," returns to life Tuesday when the Catlow will screen the great Western yarn of that name as their bargain night offering. William (Stage) Boyd creates the title role.

One of the leading Hollywood directors conceived the idea of utilizing the symbolism of purgatory as expounded in the Dante classic, to illustrate a drama as modern as Coney Island. From this thought materialized the production, "Dante's Inferno," which is scheduled to play the Catlow Wednesday and Thursday nights.

From opening scenes in the catwalks of an ocean liner the picture carries the spectators through the most varied scenes, climaxes emotional peaks and rushes on tensely to an unexpected denouement.

The principal character of the story is Spencer Tracy, as Jim Carter, a stoker on a ship who rises to wealth and affluence and becomes king of an amusement midway. He builds a fortune with an amusement concession depicting the horrors of the "Inferno," owned by Henry B. Watfall, whose niece, Claire Trevor, acts as his cashier.

Tracy marries Claire Trevor and goes on to greater triumphs. His acquisition of wealth, however, leaves a trail of lies, deception and betrayal of men whom he has raised in his rise to power.

Watfall, injured when the "Inferno" concession crashes to ruin, tries to take Tracy in hand and tell him the story of the Inferno, as depicted by Dante. The most striking scenes of the pictures are some of the most extraordinary ever produced are to be seen here.

Riding Club Presents

Gymkhana at Cardwells

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cardwell were hosts Sunday at a gymkhana presented by the Riding club. The riding ring below the garden was the scene of activity and a most interesting program was staged.

Riders gathered at the ring after luncheon and many attractive and fun-making novelties were noted among dignified and staid riding events.

Various announcers were at the public address system during the afternoon and with original and sparkling humor introduced performers. Mrs. W. Horne led off with this interesting feature by presenting the entire ensemble of contestants as they paraded in the ring.

In the three-ring riding class four women drew compliments for their charming appearance. Miss Jane Melotsh was first in the group with Mrs. John Barnes, Miss Pauline Seipp and Miss Elizabeth Van Hagen sharing other honors.

"Going to Jerusalem" was loudly acclaimed by spectators and the Buckley brothers, Chuck and Bob, tied for first award. A play on horseback entitled, "The Ride of Paul Revere," was excellently performed by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Corbett, Harold Smith and Peter Grigher.

Four generations of the Buckley family, riding in competition, drew many expressions of approval and interest.

Music also had its share of the afternoon's gaiety and many compliments were received by the riding club for its interesting program.

The Outstanding

PASSION PLAY

NOW SHOWING IN AMERICA will be presented at Baptist Church Barrington, Illinois Tuesday, Oct. 1

A few notable facts about this Passion Play It is a motion picture showing the "LIFE OF CHRIST." It is 2500 feet in length, taking two hours to present. Every scene was taken in the "HOLY LAND AND EGYPT."

This picture has been shown in some of America's largest churches and has won the endorsement of every audience that has seen it. Some have pronounced this GREATER AND MORE ELABORATE THAN THE OBERAMMERGAU STAGE PLAY.

THE SHEPHERD SCENE, CHRIST WALKING ON THE WATER AND THE LAST SUPPER, are being produced the most beautiful and most impressive ever witnessed.

The ascension is so realistic that the audience sits transfixed and in amazement and reverence as the risen Lord disappears in the heavens. This picture is based exclusively on the Gospel Records. Every scene in Barrington should see this picture. To see it is to see one of the great pictures of a lifetime. A small admission will be charged. Ela Students Seek Membership With National Society

Ela township high school may have an opportunity of joining the National Honor Society this year. The membership of this organization is limited to juniors and seniors and is based on scholastic ability, character and sportsmanship of the individual. This year the school plans to select individuals from these classes, who meet the requirements of high scholarship.

Ela has its own honor roll on which a pupil can be listed if he has not less than 2 B's and 2 A's.

If a person has a C he is not eligible. Pupils who are honor roll students will probably be selected for membership in the National Honor Society.

Many schools have already joined this society and it is considered an honor for any individual to become a member.

58 Attend September Chest Clinic, Lake County

A monthly chest clinic, sponsored by the Lake County Tuberculosis association, is making its influence felt throughout Lake county. At the September clinic 11 towns were represented and a total of 58 patients were examined, of which 11 were new cases.

Examinations are given free of charge to anyone who is not under the care of a private physician or who is unable to pay for such an examination.

These clinics are held monthly every third Wednesday at St. Thomas hospital, Waukegan, Illinois, from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. Because of the large numbers attending clinic, it is necessary to make an appointment for an examination. Such appointments may be made by calling at the office of the association, 111 telephoning Maljovic 1505.

Christmas seals sold at Chicago, giving time, provide funds to carry on this and other phases of the association's work.

125,000 PEOPLE IN THE CHICAGO AREA ARE LIVING BETTER BECAUSE OF GAS HEAT . . .

No more shoveling coal ... no more hauling ashes!

A few cents a day more for gas heat means better living in your own home

Gas heat has taught thousands how to enjoy their homes more fully—how to gain new freedom from furnace worries.

DAYS and nights of dreaded labor. Backbreaking toil before a furnace. These are gone now in thousands of homes where gas heat has taken over the furnace duties. No more shoveling. No more hauling ashes. Gas heat is the modern way homes are heated. It does away with endless cleaning, drudgery that always accompanies old-fashioned heating methods.

Live better with gas heat

Gas heat gives you a chance to live a more normal, pleasant life in your home. No early rising to build fires, no anxious moments away from home wondering if the house is warm. For an additional few pennies a day gas heat provides better living in your own home.

There is nothing to do when you have gas heat. The house is cozy when you get up. It stays warm all through the day. No constant watching, no coxing. No shaking of grates. Gas heat is automatic. Just set the thermostat and you're through. But gas heat does more than that. It helps to keep your home spotlessly clean. There's no smudge to blacken curtains and drapes. No dust to work into rugs and furniture. No dirt to cause endless cleaning. Gas helps to save many dollars on cleaning and decorating bills.

End furnace worries now

No need to wait any longer to install gas heat. Enjoy its comforts, its matchless convenience all through the coming winter. Your nearest gas company officer will furnish you with complete details of installation and of payment terms. Learn how easily you can have gas heat. For an accurate estimate of what it will cost to heat your home with gas, call your nearest Public Service Company office at once.
