Examinations are given free of charge to anyone who is not under the care of a private physician or who is unable to pay for such an examination. These clinics are held monthly every third Wednesday at St. Therese hospital, Waukegan. Clinic hours are from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. Because of the large number attending clinic, it is necessary to make an appointment for an examination. Such appointments may be made by calling at the office of the association, third floor of the court house, or by telephoning Major 1805. Christmas meals sold at Thanks giving time, proceeds funds to carry on this and other phases of the association's work.
