WHAT'S GOING ON IN WASHINGTON

A major change occurs in the administration's wage policy under the new "Security wage" schedule are to be abandoned in an effort to put more men to work.

As announced by Harry L. Hopkins, WPA chief, the new policy permits boosting hourly wage scales on work relief to approximately union scales. The monthly pay for each worker will be no higher but the hours of work will be reduced.

Responsibility for adjusting the hourly rate to approximate demands for wages prevailing in private industry is left to state administrators.

The change in policy was engineered by General Hugh Johnson, WPA administrator in New York City, who contended it was necessary to pay prevailing wage rates there—already in effect on Ickes' WPA projects—to fulfill the WPA program.

Disappointed by the death of enrollment, the CCC reduces the lower age limit for recruits and lifts the ban on reenlistments. Youth of 17 are to be admitted.

Failure to reach the projected total of 600,000—the high water mark of $19,000 was reached on August 31—inspired the decision announced by CCC Director Feibert. Purchases of young men have been leaving the camp faster than they have been joining it.

Prospects of living at home employed on work-relief at a "security wage" apparently are more attractive to the "tree-soldiers" than life in a CCC camp at $1 a day with most of their pay deducted for their people back home.

Reports published abroad that the United States considers transferring part of its fleet from the Pacific to the Atlantic bring quick official denial.

Secretary of State Hull, leaving the world that America wants no part in any war, speaks for Secretary of the Navy Swanson, says Mr. Swanson was "misquoted."

Have News Agency of France reported published in Geneva and transmitted to the state department quoted Mr. Swanson as saying the navy would be ready if war broke out to send a part of the fleet to the Atlantic.

The Associated Press report of the interview, printed in American daily newspapers, quoted Mr. Swanson as saying the decision of the fleet to the Atlantic to protect American trade "must depend on a number of factors," and that "this far the occasion for considering how American shipping might be protected had not arisen" and he hoped it would not arise.

Retiring after serving as chief of staff of the army for five years, General Douglas MacArthur tells what is wrong with the service and what it being done about it.

In a final report to the secretary of war, General MacArthur says congress is at last beginning to atone for 11 years of neglect of the army and is providing funds necessary to bring the military organization to the standard demanded by the nation's minimum requirements for safety and security.

Five years time will be necessary, however, to achieve this end.

Here are a few of the results reported recently by Review Classified Ad users:

Five Persons in Market for a Jersey Milch Cow

Five readers of The Review want to buy a Jersey Milch cow. H. L. Yager, Sutton road, Barrington, placed a "for sale" ad in The Review July 18 offering a five year old springing pure Jersey cow. Six persons had answered the ad, when the results were reported to The Review, one buying the cow.

Good Using Cooking Stoves—Many Local Persons Want Them

A good market exists in this community for used cooking stoves, including gas, electric, gasoline and kerosene, according to L. Franklin Schroeder who had conducted the Acme Home Service for several years. Mr. Schroeder had a supply of used stoves on hand early this summer which he accepted as part payment on purchase of new units. Then he used a series of Review classified ads to sell these stoves. Two weeks ago his stock was cleaned up with more readers of The Review in the market to buy used stoves.

Nine Girls Available for Clerks in Stores

Nine young women, readers of The Review, are seeking jobs as clerks. Ten girls answered a blind advertisement in The Review of August 1, for a girl to clerk in a confectionery store. One of them got the job.

Summer Apple Season Arrives: Many Buyers and Several Sellers

Apple! Apple! Local orchard owners and stores have a good supply of summer apples and a strong market for the fruit exists within the community. Last week Mrs. Roy Hughson advertised apples for sale in The Review classified columns. This week she withdrew her ad because she was nearly sold out with buyers still coming.

If you want to rent, hire, buy, sell, trade; or if you lost or found something, you can accomplish your purpose with a want ad in The Review—ONE INSERTION almost always does the trick—a saving of time, effort and money!

AUGUST 29, 1935

We Did Not Know Many Persons Were Fond of Cats, But Now We Do

Maybe mice are numerous the time of year, or maybe the people of this community just naturally like to have cats as house pets. Whatever the reason, there is a strong demand for kittens in and near Barrington. Last week Mrs. Alma Oliver of Green Meadows farm offered to give away two Persian kittens to persons who would provide good homes for the pets. The kittens were given away, but as 15 persons answered the ad, at least 13 of them still would like to have a Persian kitten.

Wanted to Buy Used Car for $15; Review Want Ad Found Three

Two individuals in the community want to sell their light cars for $15 or less. These cars are in good running order and must be bargained at the price. J. B. Brand of Barrington advertised in The Review classified ad column that he wanted to buy a used light car in good running order at that figure. Although an automobile for sale at such a low figure is a rarity, three callers answered the ad. Mr. Brand got the car he wanted, leaving two persons with good cars in running condition that are still for sale at $15 or less.

Who Said Working Women Are Scarce? Five Seek One Job

Five women are looking for jobs doing laundry work. They answered a help wanted ad which appeared in The Review classified column August 29, and one of them got the job. That one probably is available for additional work, and the services of the others are still on the market. The ad, which stated: "Women wanted for work to be done at 508 S. Cook street" got busy immediately—as Review Ads invariably do—and brought five answers.

They Just Don't Pass Up Opportunity Here

Some kind of record for alertness to opportunity was established by rural and village residents of the Barrington-Palatine-Fox River-Grove-Lake Zurich community a few weeks ago when more than 75 persons responded to a brief and inconspicuous notice. Again last week several dozen men and women responded to a short item listing a furniture market opportunity. Rosalie Schatte of Chicago Highlands offered sprayed apples at a bargain price to persons who would bring their own baskets and pick the fruit. She sold more than 100 bushels, Mrs. Schatte reported, getting rid of all of her ripe crop at that time. In the notice last week, Mrs. W. D. Hoffman of Barrington listed some furniture for sale. Three dozen prospect callers in person to see the furniture. Many others inquired by telephone. They started coming last Thursday afternoon. Calls were still coming in Wednesday of this week. Several pieces are offered for sale in an ad this week.

Both of these notices were "for sale classified ads" in The Review.

Money Refunded, Order Cancelled, But Not by Dissatisfied Customer

"Please discontinue our ad, we rented the house." An order of this kind is a familiar refrain at The Review office. Every week users phone Barrington 1 to discontinue their advertisements because they get results from the first insertion. Last week Fred Buckholz advertised a cottage for rent at 291 W. Hillside, for answer telephone Palatine 2289. He paid in advance for two insertions. On Saturday he called to cancel the second insertion and the cost for that week was refunded. Five persons had gone to the expense of long distance telephone calls to answer the ad, one of them renting the house. "Single Man Wants Room" inserted as a keyed "blind" ad in The Review Sept. 19, brought in 9 answers by Sept. 21 and 4 answers later. Of course, the man rented a room from the large selection and had no need for a second insertion.

Bronchos

Lose Home Opener to Lake Forest by 14 to 12 Score

Bill Mountain, Bill Dotterter Register Broncho Touchdowns

Barrington High's Broncho gridiron will make their first start in the year's Northwest conference on Friday afternoon, host team in the highly-touted Warren football game at Garrettsville, Ohio.

Lady Forest scored both touchdowns in passes from Binley to Kennedy one in the first, and the other being the second quarter. Binley's drop kicked both extra points.

With the score 14-0 against the Bronks started clicking and added by a Lake Forest penalty scored just before the half. Dotterter carried the ball over the 3-yard line on a delayed signal through center. The extra point was missed.

In the middle of the third period the Bronks scored again on a pass from Binley to B. Mountain which registered the touchdown which brought the score to 14-12 where it eventually stayed.

The local team threatened again in the last period but an interception halted the march. The usual early season fumbling, poor tackling and blocking, were evident and although Binley was the larger school, the Bronks showed promise of developing into a smooth-working team.
