an excellent opportunity for dog lovers to witness hunting dogs in field trial work will be available Saturday and Sunday when the Midwest Field trials are being held at the T. M. Howell estate west of Barrington. Champion dogs in the retriever and spaniel classes will be entered from all parts of the country. The trials will start Saturday morning at 9:00 and run through Sunday. On Saturday morning an all-day class will be held starting at 8:30 a. m. Sunday the open all-day class is to complete. Visitors are invited and no admission will be charged. Spectators and junior classes will follow the judges and are promised an interesting sight. Martin Hagen, well-known dog authority in charge of the Howell estate, and Dr. G. A. Gilford of Oakbrook, Wis., will be the judges. There will be 30 or 40 retrievers of the Labrador, Chesapeake and golden breed as well as several breeds of spaniels in competition. Several of the dogs entered have won championships in England and have been winners of several breeds of spaniels in competition. The course, over which the dogs are to work, is around the lake located on the Howell estate. Excellent cover for birds is available.

Bicycle League to Sponsor Elgin to Chicago Road Race

Melting enthusiasts will have an opportunity to watch many leading riders of that sport perform Sunday when the annual Elgin to Chicago road race will be staged by the Amateur Bicycle League of America. Willie Dreyer, local athlete, is expected to lead.

Starting at Elgin at 1 p. m. a large field of riders will begin the long 50 mile grind to Humboldt Park in Chicago. The race will follow route 22 north from Elgin to the intersection of routes 22, 14, 19 and U. S. 12, Northwest Highway. Residents of Barrington will be able to view the riders as they pass around the village.

A mixed field has filed entries for that day. Women as well as men will compete for prizes being offered by the league. A dinner is being held in the evening at which time prizes will be awarded. Representatives of the community through which the riders pass are to be guests at this dinner and John H. Blanke has been named to represent Barrington.

Bernard Majewski to Speak at Men's Club October 31

The monthly meeting of the Barrington Men's club will be held next Thursday night at Greenwald's banquet hall, 100 S. Cook street, starting at 6:30 p. m. Bernard Majewski has been selected as the speaker. Mr. Majewski has a home west of Barrington and is vice president of the Deep Rock Oil corporation.

Mr. Majewski is widely known in petroleum circles for his extensive knowledge of the industry and played a prominent part in regulation of oil production. He was appointed as a member of the committee to lead the permanent fair in Chicago. Mr. Majewski's topic for the evening is not known at present but will be an interesting one. John Carroll, Martin Schreiber and Dr. W. Fanning are members of a committee arranging the program. To Lecture Here W. A. Hunt, a graduate of Moody Bible Institute, will give a free illustrated lecture in St. Paul church at 7:45 p. m. Sunday. His theme will be life among the mountains folk of Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, and Alabama—regions where he expects to arrive as a Christian missionary some day. The public has been invited to attend.
