

Campfire Girls

Week's camp closed its doors for the following year. There are as follows: Evelyn Boyde, president; Alice Anderson, vice president; Ruth Dwyer, secretary; Betty Anderson, treasurer; Anna Marie Friend, chairman, press committee; Bernice Jordan, press correspondent.

Wednesday the Campfire girls will initiate seven new girls into their camp. They have planned many exciting thrills, and horrible dangers for the girls. Each girl must wear a costume and it is advisable to have a stout heart.

Lake Zurich Community Woman's Club

The annual Fellowship party was held Thursday evening, Oct. 23, at the parish hall. A banquet was in charge of the social chairman, Mrs. A. J. Crawford, and presented to be one of the outstanding events of the year.

The tables were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and centerpieces of yellow and orange flowers.

There was a comely singing program. The dinner was served by the playing of shuffleboard, table tennis.

Speeches of the evening was due to the guests of the social chairman, Mrs. Crawford, and the club members. The evening was a very enjoyable one.

The regular meeting of the Lake Zurich Federation will be held Monday at 10:00 a.m. All members are urged to attend. The annual conference will be held Thursday, Oct. 31, at the Sherman Hotel, Chicago. It is hoped that all of the members will plan to attend the meeting.

The District circle will meet at the home of Mrs. William J. Preston, Oct. 25. Mrs. E. Jackson, District, will give a review. The District prepares very interesting talks and a very pleasant time is in store for our club members.

The Handcraft class meets every second and fourth Tuesday of each month. Mrs. A. J. Crawford is chairman of the Division of Handcraft. Many interesting projects are being planned, and club members and friends of the club are urged to give their support to the handcraft class.

The library is open each Tuesday afternoon from two until five o'clock. The library has recently been re-decorated and new cardinals have been added. The room is very attractive. All those working on the library committee are to be commended for the work.
