Final Performance of Legion Music Show This Evening
 Reports from first nighters school pupils who attended formations of "Here Comes Showboat" at the Catlow, the Wednesday afternoon and evening show will prove it to be one of the outstanding musical entertainments presented in Peoria.
 A final performance will be presented at 8:15 tonight, with few seats still available, according to Arthur Martens, chairman of ticket sales.
 The show is sponsored by American Legion 414 and has a cast of more than 100 local residents. Leading roles are played by P. Simpson as the skipper, Dr. Edgar, tall yardstick captain, Dr. Nightingale as the girl, George, John Cadwallader as who hired Upland Stanton, and Dr. Davidson as the hypnotist mayor.
 Miss Ruth Widenbeck "Bippy" and Lloyd Graham, "Big" provide the romance. Miss Gertrude Wenzel introduced one of the most striking scenes in the show when, in the role of "The Girl Who Wasn't There," she leads the song "Rhythm of the River."
Safe Blowers Net $150 Loot at Fox River Grove Sunday
 Safe blowers obtained $150 from a safe they opened with explosives in the office of the Fox River Grove Lumber company Monday. Sheriff H. A. Halle of McHenry county, investigated the scene but was unable to find any clues.
 The crime was discovered Monday morning when officials of the lumber company arrived to open the office for business.
 Following clues upon the Fox River Grove job came toward the Union that a safe in the Union postoffice had been blown open and reported sum of $100 postal funds taken.
 The postmaster at Union discovered the crime when he opened the postoffice Monday morning. Federal authorities were notified as well as Sheriff Halle.
 It is the opinion of police officials that both jobs were done the same gang.
Scouts Plan Program
 A board of review will be held for scouts Tuesday evening and court of honor will be held Wednesday. Scoutmaster program will be held in the scout club grounds outside park beginning at 8 p. m. Roy H. L. Bagley will conduct the court of honor. The program will be assisted by W. H. Chapin. Troop 21 will act as host on the evening.
