

Algonquin Chapter of Eastern Star Seats Officers

Mrs. George Roop are Installed at Ceremony Saturday

A large number of visitors were present at the ceremony when Mrs. George Roop were installed as worthy patron and president of the Algonquin chapter of the Eastern Star. The installation was held in the Algonquin chapter room. The newly-elected officers formed an escort and made an arch of "hankie roses" for the matron to walk under. Yvonne Roop escorted her parents to their stations. Rev. Hanson of Algonquin sang "My Task" after the worthy matron was installed and an appropriate hymn was sung after the worthy patron had been seated. Mrs. Eda Nagel, representing the Fox River Grove Legion Auxiliary, presented Mrs. Roop with an anniversary gift and Mr. Roop received a cake from Mrs. Charles Catronna, president of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Ella Henry, retiring matron, received a jewel from the chapter. Mrs. Ann Graves, grand lecturer of the Woodstock chapter, made the presentation. Guests enjoyed refreshments and dancing at the close of the program.

Barrington Hills

Social activities of the week seemed to center around the opening of hunting season, and week-end parties were principally masculine ones.

George E. Van Hagen was host also to a party of friends who came with hunting equipment. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Beymer left for St. Louis Wednesday to spend the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. John Delaney are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter. The Charles Buckleys III are delighted over the advent of a wee daughter also. Wednesday the first of a series of card parties at the Country club brought out an interesting number of players. The second is to be held December 11. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Harmon and daughter, Denise, are guests of Mrs. Harmon's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stillion Hart. Mrs. Hart is still confined to her home with illness but is improving. Mr. and Mrs. Clive Taylor of Chicago were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ross over the holidays, and dinner guests of Mr. and
