Injunction Restrains Collection of Tax on Village Water Sales

Judge La Fay of the circuit court of Cook county granted an injunction on Nov. 12, restraining the state director of finance and the state treasurer from disposing of any money in their hands paid by cities and villages under the three per cent utility tax law, and forbidding them to enforce any penalties against municipalities under the act until the suit to contest the validity of the law is disposed of finally.

One hundred and thirteen cities and villages have now joined in this suit as plaintiffs, and more are joining from time to time. They contend that the public utilities law, which would require the payment to the state of three per cent of the gross income of municipal water and light plants, is invalid as it applies to utilities owned and operated by a city or village.

Boy Scouts Will Repair Donated Toys This Year

Distribution of Gifts to Be Made in Community at Christmas

Following a custom of previous years the Boy Scouts of Barrington will collect, repair and distribute toys that have been turned over to them to provide a happy Christmas for boys and girls of this community. November 30 has been set as the day that scouts will go from house to house and collect toys to be used this year. They will repair and paint them for the coming holiday. This work is being done under direction of Roy Williamson, its chairman and assisted by the entire executive committee.

To Eat or Not to Eat: The Bird She Was Dead Anyway

Whether to violate three laws or be guilty of shameful waste was a problem thrust against the top of the head of Lew Smiley, high school instructor, in the form of a large hen pheasant Saturday afternoon.

The pheasant, subject of the problem, flew through the windshield of Mr. Smiley's automobile, and with neck broken, came to rest upon the top of the driver's head. This unusual occurrence took place about three and one-half miles southwest of Barrington along route 43-A. Mr. Smiley, accompanied by Mrs. Smiley, driving through Barrington at about 45 miles per hour when the bird flew the road directly at the car. It knocked a hole ten inches in diameter through the windshield. The driver duck his head to avoid getting a shower of glass in his face. The bird smashed against his hat and remained there.
