Kenneth Loomis Talks at Elia Township High School on Armistice Day

Kenneth Loomis was guest speaker at Elia township high school when Armistice Day was observed November 11. Mr. Loomis is a world war veteran and served in the 9th division, 158th Infantry.

In discussing war he divided the last great conflict into three parts. Decision, Execution and Interpretation. The decision was the formal entrance into war by the United States and events leading up to that move. The execution was founded on personal experiences of Mr. Loomis while serving as a soldier. The interpretation was the lesson given to the present generation from the last war.
