Lowest Village in North Lincolnshire is Station-Vale, near Market Rasen. The village has no school, police station, bus service, school, or unemployment office. Villagers speak their own dialect, and they have their own agricultural interests.

Fox River Grove

A regular monthly meeting of Oak Glen school's Mothers' club was held at the home of Mrs. T. J. Johnson last week with the newly installed president, Mrs. Bertha Halzeman, presiding. Plans were discussed for the school's Christmas party to be held Friday evening, Dec. 28. Mrs. Ella Wang is to be in charge of packing of Christmas candy boxes for children and Mrs. Alice Catronotta in charge of ice cream for that evening. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Amy Jones at 2 p. m. Wednesday, Dec. 18.

Des Plaines Theatre to Have Opening Programs Friday

In a blaze of lights, music and razzle, the new Des Plaines theatre will officially open its doors at 1:30 p. m. Friday.

After two months of intensive work, the theatre has been completely remodeled and redecorated. The front, foyer and lobby have been rebuilt in the modern motif, and a new lounge room added. Friday at 1:30 p. m. the new canopy will blaze with light and the official opening will have taken place. The completed Des Plaines theatre represents all that is new and modern in theatre architecture. Periera and Periera, supervising architects have put all of their vast experience into the rebuilding of the Des Plaines, and the result leaves nothing to be desired.

From the new canopy with its silhouettes letters to the new lounge room with its comfortable conveniences, it has been completely rebuilt. New carpeting has been installed in the foyer and lobby and in the auditorium aisles. New seating comfort was brought to Des Plaines some time ago, and the projection and sound equipment is the finest that money could buy. Des Plaines can well be proud of the new theatre, aptly called "The finest suburban theatre in America."

Saturday night the Elks band will parade to the theatre as a gesture of welcome by the people of Des Plaines to their new cinema. The theatre opens at 1:30 p. m. Friday with its complete show of the "WLS on Parade" being shown at all performances. Saturday the feature picture "Annapolis Parade" and the stage show will be repeated, and Sunday the program will be headed by "Top Hat" starring Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers. In his invitation to the public to attend the grand opening, Manager Joe Feulner, has asked the people to expect the most, and they will not be disappointed. In all its appointments, in its com-

Observations made by Dr. Amy Daniels, University of Iowa, and confirmed by other investigators, reveal a direct relation between the amount of the fat of whole milk in the diet and in the occurrence of colds and respiratory infections in children.

After strenuous outdoor play in the cold weather, a child is fatigued and he is easily susceptible to common cold germs. A glass of whole milk following his exercise will do wonders in restoring his resistance energy. This is one of the most important steps in helping your child avoid colds.
