Reports in From N. W. Conference Basketball Camps

Leyden, Libertyville, Lake Forest and Bensenville Rate as Top Teams

Reports from the various Northwest conference basketball camps have come in during the past week and the general consensus establishes Libertyville, Leyden, Bensenville, and Lake Forest as favorites in the 1935-36 heavy.

Alley News

Libertyville Wildcats are regarded as the team to beat this year. Coach Jack Martin has three giant lettermen returning in H. Isaacson, D. Jaeger, and G. Madden, all of whom top the six-foot mark.

Warren Blue Devils are also expected to have a much stronger team. Coach R. P. Kelton has three letter winners returning: Bryan and Ames, guards; and C. Phillip, center.

Grant high of Fox Lake, making its first start in the conference, has an uncertain quantity but has had good teams in past years.

Palatine Pirates lost every letterman from last season's championship squad through graduation, and Coach G. A. McElroy must build an entirely new team.

Palatine has four 4-footers in Stu. Wittenberg, Foster, and O'Brien. Moss, Haemker, and O'Brien are also good prospects.

Ela lost seven lettermen by graduation including Nehmer, Schroeder, and Kane, outstanding players. A. Leubauer, E. Brewer, and W. Miller are returning.

Sore Muscles and Blisters Acquired by Church Cagers

If you wondered why so many young men were limping around town the first part of the week here's the reason.

The Barrington church basketball league held its first practice of the season Monday night and quite a few of the veteran basketweavers suffered the usual first night sore muscles and blistered feet.

Practice scrimmages between the five teams—Salem, Methodist, St. Paul, Baptist and St. Anne brought out the fact that the league should be more evenly balanced this year than ever before.

Several more practices will be held before the regular game begins. The season schedule will be announced shortly.
