The Crusades. Drama of Middle Ages, at Cattle

"Freckles" to Be Shown and Thurs. as Campfire Girls' Benefit

The magnificent and varied spectacle of the armies of warlike battle; the color, gaiety and rustic beauty of middle Ages; the potent magic of a king and queen who have changed the course of history.

From these story elements, all B. DeMille created the most spectacular and delightful picture he has ever produced. "The Crusades," which will be presented by the Cattle on the night, Friday and Saturday.

Featuring Loreta Young, Henry Wilcox with a support cast of over one hundred players and thousands of extras the picture recreates that most eventful period of history, the conquests of the armies of Europe followed the fast Peter on the crusades to wrest their land from the Saracens.

Wilcox plays Richard the Lionheart, commander of the crusade army. Loreta Young in her role as the girl he had to marry to secure support for his cause.

Jan Keith is cast as Saladin, Katherine DeMille, G. A. Smith, Joseph Bellikant and others are prominent in the supporting cast.

"Hondewave," playing Sunday and Monday, is the startling, dramatic story of the U. S. Cry graphic barman as told by the man who organized and headed throughout the World War.

Based upon Major Herbert Vardley's sensational best-seller, "The American Bomb Chamber," it is crammed with intimate revelations of the counter-espionage drama in which foreign diplomats and their communications were secretly "tapped," decoded and deciphered for official information.

Through the amazing plot, suspense and drama has been a romance with William Post as the chief cryptographer and Edna Russell.

Others in the cast are Bill Brown, Henry Stephenson, Lionel Atwill.

"Eagle's Brood" will be the main night offering next Tuesday. The dramatic story of the long Cassidy in this new episode of the colorful West.

Thrills representing a departure from the regular movie form are depicted in "Freckles," G. Hernton-Porter's outstanding work. Set in the brave beauty look; background, the story relates the difficult couple pitted by an orphan boy in his quest for happiness.

Tom Brown as the title character and Carol Stone have the dramatic leads, with Lumsden H. and James Bush in other roles.

"Freckles" will be presented a benefit for the local Campfire Girls' organization, and will shown next Wednesday and Thursday nights. "Runaway Kids," comedy in color, Spotlight's hit now will be other items of interest on the bill.

Grows Largest Leaves
A water lily whose name is Lotus Regia grows the largest leaves of any plant in the world. They often measure 30 to 40 feet round. The edges turn up and the leaf lies on the water, looking like a green tray. A man can quite easily sit on one of these leaves.

The Christmas stocking will welcome a bottle of CREAM TOP.
