Dear Review Reader Friends:

Merry
Christmas

Old stuff, but nevertheless we wish it to you most heartily—All of us to all of you.

You no doubt recall some time ago we ran a space in this paper called "Fur and Facta." We wonder how many of you Review Readers have missed this space; also how many of you have enjoyed these items of common interest, wisceracks, catch questions, seasonable paragraphs, good will, "do you remember way back when," etc. In other words, we wonder how many of you reading this space. We will try to make it as interesting as possible. We wish you would call Barrington 225 and advise us in the coming week if you would enjoy reading this space cassionally also, we may decide to write poetry or high brow editorials. But, we'll at least try to be interesting and hope you will call us during the coming week and express your ideas—pro or con—regarding "Fun and Facts." We'll need your help and moral support.

Again W essy "MERRY CHRISTMAS"
