

Bronchos Remain in Tie for Second Place; Easily Defeat Palatine

Trim Pirate Five by 38-20 Score in Game Here Friday

Win 11-10; Bensenville Here for Next Games January 10

The Bensenville Bronchos basketball team gained its second consecutive victory in three starts and held second place in the Northwest conference standing by easily defeating the Palatine Pirates in a game played here Friday night. The Pirates were down by 38 to 20 when the Bronchos high scorers, Harry Kano and Ed Weber, were victorious of the evening.

The Bronchos are rapidly gaining the reputation of being "tough" basketball players. Their floor and backcourt play has been the key to their success. In the first quarter they were not getting to be very good. In the second quarter they were not getting to be very good. In the third quarter they were not getting to be very good. In the fourth quarter they were not getting to be very good.

St. Paul Wins
St. Anne had a 14-8 lead over St. Paul at the half, was still in front at the three-quarter mark, but weakened in the final period. The taller St. Paul quartet, led by Hank Rowland, Baptists forward, sank a spectacular over-the-shoulder shot for the winning point.
