American Legion Names A. Martens Post Commander

Annual Carnival August 2 to 7 at Local Ball Park; Appoint Heads

Arthur G. Martens, actively associated with the local American Legion post for the last several years, was elected commander at the annual election held in the club rooms, 133 Park avenue, Thursday night. Installation will take place in the fall after the state convention, and it is reported will be done at a joint session with the Legion Auxiliary.

Commander Martens succeeds K. Shoup who has headed the local post for the past year. Other officers elected were: Harry Coffman, senior vice commander; Jack Matyske, junior vice commander; Dr. C. H. Kelham, finance officer; Andrew Bjornberg, sergeant-at-arms; Dr. William Sandell, chaplain; Cecil E. Paxton, historian. Harry Brandt had been nominated for senior vice commander by the nominating committee but declined to be a candidate for the position.

Commander Shoup announced Wednesday the official dates for the annual legion carnival will be from August 2 through 7. The event will be held at the local ball park, Hough and Washington streets. The carnival entertainment is being supplied by the Wanda Shows, and new amusements of great interest will be shown here. Mr. Shoup reported.

Committee chairman for the carnival have been appointed as follows: William Koening, corn booth; H. Brandt, refreshments; Cecil Paxton, cigarette shooting gallery; Andrew Bjornberg, bottles booth; Lloyd Albrecht, penny pitch; Arthur Martens, rubber booth; Noel Starnor, one dollar booth; Harry Coffman, dart booth; George Kuebler, penny booth; W. Blood, two penny booth; Dr. W. Sandell, arrow booth; Paul Farnell, big six booth; K. Shoup, advertising and electrical work.

Novena at St. Anne Closes Sunday; Will Hold Parish Dinner

The nine day annual novena being conducted at St. Anne church by Father Desmond Schmal, professor of post graduate courses in dogmatic theology at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary, Mundelein, will close Sunday with a special high mass service starting at 12 o'clock.

Services are held nightly at St. Anne starting Monday with the Father Schmal speaking on various theological phases. A "question box" forum is being held on the church lawn after each evening service. At that time written questions on religion are opened and read for discussion.

In special preparation for the high mass Sunday, the boys' prayer choir and the senior choir are rehearsing nightly. The senior choir is composed of Mrs. W. Jacobson, Mrs. Gordon Cameron, Mrs. W. McNamara, Mrs. F. Trestle, Mrs. W. Miller, Daniel McKee, E. Owens and W. Garvin.

All-parish dinner will follow the service, and entertainment has been provided for the conclusion.
