Barrington Woman's Club

With true Christmas spirit Barrington Woman's club members have in previous years brought gifts for needy children to the annual Christmas meeting. These gifts have been bought by the members and wrapped actively by them in order to bring the thrill of the season to the children.

This year the club is following a different program. Instead of buying and wrapping gifts the members are being asked to support our own child welfare project. We are asked to make a cash donation to further this work for our own community. At our next meeting to be held in the Catlow theatre on Dec. 21 there will be a Christmas box, furnished by Mrs. Kingery's child welfare committee. It will be somewhere in the vicinity of the tree, and we are asked to drop our donations into it.

Little need be said of the splendid work done by the Barrington Infant and Child Welfare clinic. We all know that the members of our community may bring their children to the clinic to be weighed, measured and examined each month, and that this is entirely without charge. We all know that it is a very worthy project to support, so let every one of us bring her donation to our Christmas meeting. In that way our gifts will outlast the Christmas season; they will extend throughout the coming year.
