SEPTEMBER BOARD MINUTES

The regular monthly board meeting of the Barrington Area Branch was held September 13, 1982 at the home of Holly Anderson. The meeting was preceded by a delicious spinach quiche supper.

First on the agenda was a movie on goal setting. The board listed their goals for the year as:

1. Increased publicity
2. Greater community visibility
3. Fiscal comfort
4. Professional participation (leadership development)

Joyce Taillon, International Tasters Chair, announced that October 23rd would be the date of the Octoberfest dinner. Cost - $7.50 per person or $15.00 per couple, minus food expenses.

There is no book review chairperson. The schedule stands as presented. Please notify Jane or Carol, newsletter chairmen if there are changes.

Pare your budget!

On September 21st the meeting format will be changed. The program will be held first, then the business meeting - refreshments either prior to or following the meeting.

There will be no tree project for the Historical Society.

A sign-up sheet was passed around for the daytime group by Dee Dee Gillilan.

Results of a telephone poll were as follows: 3/4 of the members polled wanted an assessment and no fund raisers.

SEPTEMBER MINUTES

The regular monthly meeting of the Barrington Area Branch AAUW was held on September 20, 1982, at the Barrington Area Library. President Gloria Morris called the meeting to order.

Holly Anderson, program chairman, introduced the following members, each of whom gave a presentation of their special subject: Jan Gohl and LuAnn Gavula as representatives of Kids on the Block demonstrated the deaf puppet. This is a presentation for third graders to help them empathize with children who are deaf, blind, or have other learning disabilities. Eileen Strei reported in her talk on real estate that sales in general are down, but that she is optimistic for the future as prices and interest fall. Mary Lou Hajduk told a fascinating tale of her family's visit to Russia and Lithuania last summer.

Alita Young, corresponding secretary, read the minutes for May 17, 1982, which were approved as read.

Kay Devlin, treasurer, reported on the proposed budget for '81-'82, and '82-'83. The special member's contribution voted in place of branch fund raisers will raise our estimated income for '82-'83 to $2,047.50 in contrast to $1,396.81 for '81-'82. Expenditures are expected to equal income.

Jan Gohl announced that there will be an award for the branch member bringing in the most new members this year.

Carol Fischer, newsletter co-chairman, announced that monthly newsletter items are to be left in her mailbox at 910 East Main St. by September 22. The yearbook deadline is September 30 stated chairmam Mary Lou Hajduk.

All are welcome at the other two groups. Daytime Group chairman Dee Dee Gillilan passed around the sign-up sheet for that group.

There is no chairman for the book review group which meets on the fourth Tuesday evening as per printed schedule.

Joyce Taillon announced that the first International Tasters event will be Octoberfest on October 23.

Respectfully submitted,
Alita Young, Corresponding Secretary

OCTOBER BOARD

The October 11 board meeting was called to order at the home of Beth Price, by President Gloria Morris.

The minutes were approved as amended.

Not all dues collected-money needed by November.

Holly A inquired as to the success of the new meeting format- refreshments and business later. A discussion followed.

~~There are problems~~
There are problems concerning use of the library meeting room. A new meeting place is needed for November. The December 2 meeting will be earlier- a soup mixer. Lake Barrington Shores Park District was mentioned as a possibility. $25. fee charged for wine there.

The November Branch meeting will be the Buffalo Grove-Wheeling Branch doing "A Woman Ahead of Her Time." Bring guests, and come for hot spiced cider and donuts.

Tuition Tax Credit-the bill before Congress will be the subject of the October Meeting.

Jan Gohl reported the branch membership as 64. She will call new members, use pamphlets from the chamber of commerce, welcome wagon.

(The daytime group will meet on the 27th-new ideas needed.)

IRA Prizes for attracting new members mentioned. There are problems attracting people not college graduates.

Changes in name, address, and phone numbers of members need to be communicated to other members; the newsletter is best.

The reservation date for the International Tasters Octoberfest is Tuesday October 19th. Invite friends-casual and friendly.

The newsletter deadline is October 20th.

January Board

The January 15th Board Meeting at Tomorrow's Monday was called to order by President Gloria Morris at 11:00A. M. preceding the luncheon. Minutes were read and approved, and there was no treasurer's report.

The nominating committee will meet this month in advance, chaired by Maureen Brady. Happy Lowden volunteered to be a board member to serve with the members-at-large, (volunteer)

The board voted to allow $100. to send the President to the Association convention in San Francisco. Our branch is allowed two delegates for the convention.

The dues increase must be presented to the membership in writing two weeks before the meeting, to vote. It was moved by Holly Anderson and seconded by Dee Gilligan that the '83-'84 Barrington Branch AAUW dues be raised from $20. to $25. The branch needs more money for programs.

Holly Anderson moved, and Mary Lou Hajduk seconded that we send a congratulatory night letter to Deerfield in honor of their 25th Anniversary. Members from other branches are welcome to attend the quiche Birthday luncheon February 12th for a $5. fee.

Happy Lowden mentioned the possibility of using the three Barrington Artists's Agents for a program or in connection with a program. The three are: Mary Home, Patti Paymaster, and Happy Lowden.

It was moved by Dee Gillilan and seconded by Mary Lou Hajduk that a limited number of 25-30 word classified ads be placed in the monthly newsletter at a cost of $2 per Ad in order to finance the newsletter.

The meeting was adjourned in order to proceed to the January Branch Meetings.

Respectfully Submitted,

The regular monthly board meeting of the Barrington chapter of A A U W was held at Mery Ellen Henehan's home on February 14, at 8:10 P.M. There were eight members present.

The minutes were read and corrected to include the names of Mary Harrea and Phyllis English on the nominating committee. The minutes were approved as corrected.

There was some discussion about financing the President's trip to the convention in June. At present there is $250 allocated for this purpose in a special travel fund. There is a concern that there be funds available for start-up purposes in the fall for the club as a whole. It was moved by Mary Lou Hajduk, seconded by Kay Devlin, that a minimum of $400, including the $100 previously authorized, be authorized for the convention expenses of the President. Passed unanimously.

The dues increase from $20 to $25 will be presented to the membership in March to be voted on in April.

Mary Lou Hajduk described the Deerfield Chapter's 25th Anniversary luncheon, attended by four members.

The EFP funds are presently $450. It was moved by Holly Anderson, seconded by Mary Lou Hajduk, that a donation of $2 per member be donated to EFP. Passed Unanimously. As the membership chair has resigned her post, it was recommended that several persons be appointed to fill her duties from time to time.

The meeting was adjourned at 10 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Dorothy Gillilan, for Alita Young

February Branch Meeting

MARCH BOARD MEETING MINUTES

The meeting was called to order by President Gloria Morris at the home of Carol Fisher. with Jane Riley as co-hostess.

The secretarial minutes were not read as Alita Young was not present.

Treasurer Kay Devlin was absent, but Morris reported that the Branch had 59 paid up members according to State records. Also, it was reported that Frances Corcoran was a new member and that should bring our membership total to 60 members.

Morris reported that some members had refused to pay their $5 assessment until the exact number of members was made available to the membership.

Mary Lou Hajduc was acknowledged as the new Vice President of Membership; she reported that she and Jan Gohl had met extensively about the position.

Maureen Brady, chair of the nominating committee, was called by Happy Lowden, member of the committee, since no official meeting was determined yet. Brady said she had scheduled a Sunday afternoon meeting. Hajduc will serve as an alternate board representative if Lowden cannot attend.

Morris mentioned that she was not planning to attend the State Convention as the cost would be $100, and she preferred spending that amount on the San Francisco trip. Members are encouraged to attend on April 23 if they can arrange it.

The Book Group will meet on March 22 at Henehan's, reviewing the book CATHERINE THE GREAT.

Phyllis English has agreed to be the Book Group Chair for the next year.

Dede Gillilan reviewed the past month's tour of the underground house and invited all the group to go to Woodstock for lyric opera and E. F. Huttons on March 23 to hear Frank Lockwood.

Lowden attended Harper's Women's History Week and expressed concern that more people did not attend the quality meetings. Discussion was held that our Branch might consider making that meeting our Branch meeting next year since we were a sponsoring organization.

Anderson said she had accumulated several good ideas for programs for next year and was eager to work with the new Program Vice President.

Morris reported on the District 5 Presidents' luncheon she went to Saturday in Crystal Lake and gave several ideas for programs and fund raising:

Investment groups
Antiques as Investments
Market Research (Lowden proposed)
Doll Show
The New Middle Class Poor
Life Planning Group
Honoring Outstanding Women (objective for Fall 83)
Geranium Brunch: selling geraniums and quiche brunch at DeKalb
Cookbook (Rockford and Itasca): SP $7; Cost $4
Oral History Contest for 5, 6, 7, 8 grades. Two divisions
Fashion Show: ask new people to model

Trends on the Association finances were also discussed. The Graduate Women magazine is to take a new, less expensive format; several presidents at the meeting were negative.

It was agreed that we would solicit a hostess for the July membership luncheon and then work on the Art Committee for the entertainment.

Morris announced that Mary Horn's husband was very ill.

The need was reinforced for a fundraiser for next year, and the group was encouraged to start thinking early about plans for easy fundraisers.

Chandler encouraged our Branch to coordinate meetings and/or fundraisers with other local organizations, such as the Friends of the Library or Historical Society.

The meeting was adjourned around 9:30 p.m. by President Morris.

BRANCH MEETING MINUTES
March 21, 1983
Library

The meeting was called to order by President Gloria Morris at 8 p.m. Beth Price, International Relations Chair, introduced Gerry Harrison, State Division International Relations Chair, who presented the program on Women in Third World countries.

The secretary's minutes were not read since she was ill. The treasurer was not present; however, Morris reported that there were 60 official members in the Branch this year.

Morris acknowledged the Nominating Committee members: Maureen Brady, Chair; Phyllis English, Phyllis Rainwater, Mari Harrer, and Happy Lowden. Brady asked that Morris announce the slate of officers presented to the membership:

Bobbi Svacha, President
Jeannette Muench, Program Vice President
Barb Inbody, Treasurer.

This slate will be voted on at the April meeting, as well as the By-laws change.

Holly Anderson announced the programs for the next two months and encouraged all the members to attend.

Morris asked Phyllis English to briefly enumerate events on Women's History Week at Harper; it was suggested that the Branch attend one evening of the special events next year to support the Women's History week.

Mary Lou Hajduc announced the visitors and welcomed them.

The Kids on the Block group is soliciting new participants at its March 23 meeting at the Barrington library.

Morris reported on the President's Luncheon at Crystal Lake and mentioned several cutbacks the Association was thinking about making: making GRADUATE WOMAN a tabloid newspaper; separating the Foundation from the Association; one association visit to each State. Several creative ideas were presented to the Board.

The State Convention will be at Decatur on April 23. Maureen Brady will be the only representative from Barrington, and Morris asked if there were others that might be interested in attending.

The Book Group will meet at Phyllis Rainwater's home March 22 with Mary Ellen Henehan reviewing CATHERINE THE GREAT.

The DayGroup will visit E. F. Hutton on March 23 and attend a piano concert on the evening of April 21.

March 23 is the newsletter deadline this month.

Morris announced that plans were already being made for the July membership luncheon and asked if there would be a hostess volunteer.

Taillon mentioned that she would like to have one more International Tasters event this spring, probably using a Greek theme. A hostess is needed for this event.

Anderson mentioned that she and Hajduc had attended the Chicago Area Council last Saturday and thought the day was very worthwhile.

Thanks was given to Beth Price for obtaining the speaker and to hostesses Phyllis English, Joanne Curtis, and Eileen Strei.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:45.

1983

April Board Meeting

The April^{11th} Board Meeting of the Barrington Area Branch was called to order by President Gloria Morris at the home of Jeanette Muench.

The minutes were read and approved.

The April branch program will be on Futures, a film, produced in 1965. Branch elections will also take place. Every member (board) is to bring another member, and call 6 others. The May branch meeting will be a presentation of Margaret Mead's Blackberry Winter.

The Elgin AAUW Branch will sponsor an Art Showcase as a fundraiser in downtown Elgin-Fountain Square. It will also feature a book sale, a bake sale, music, and refreshments. Hemens Aud.-rain loc.

Mary Ellen Henehan was nominated by our AAUW Branch Chapter for the Barrington Area Council Community Service Award. The motion was made by Happy Lowden, and seconded by Jeanette Muench. Carried.

Eileen Strei has offered her home for the summer luncheon meeting, Friday July 15th suggested as possible date. There will be a art work display by the three agents-Happy Lowden, Mary Horn, and Patti Paymaster. Extra equipment such as plates is to be rented. Mary Lou H. will contact members, and problem mechanics are to be handled by hospitality.

Thursday April 28 will be the deadline for the newsletter. Place news items in Carol Fischer's mailbox.

Posters and phamplets are needed for prospective new members.

The meeting was adjourned at 10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
